Notice relating to the

Substitution of Issuer

for Securities issued by

UniCredit Bank GmbH

On 18 November 2026, UniCredit Bank GmbH ("HVB") and UniCredit S.p.A. ("UniCredit") have entered into an agreement to transfer securities issued by HVB to UniCredit. The transferred securities include securities governed by Italian law as identified by the ISINs listed in the annex hereto (the "Italian Securities").

The transfer is based on the issuer substitution clause set forth in the terms and conditions of the Italian Securities respectively and will become effective as of 22 November 2026, 00:00h CET (the "Effective Date"). As of the Effective Date, UniCredit substitutes HVB as the new issuer and assumes all obligations of HVB under or in connection with the Italian Securities.

In addition, UniCredit has committed itself to indemnify each holder of the Italian Securities in respect to all taxes, charges, assessments, or fees of public authorities, which are imposed on a holder of the Italian Securities as a result of the replacement of HVB with UniCredit as the new issuer.

HVB has issued an unconditional and irrevocable guarantee of all obligations of UniCredit as the new issuer under the Italian Securities for the benefit of the holders of the Italian Securities (the " Transfer Guarantee"). The Transfer Guarantee is available at:

www.onemarkets.it/it/info/announcements-and-notice

Further, as of the Effective Date UniCredit will take on the role as Paying Agent and Calculation Agent under the Italian Securities, which until the Effective Date was exercised by HVB.
